Bringing Profitability and Balance Back Into Business!

Ed McDonough is the Founder of Executive Coaching and a well credentialed business specialist with over 10 years of deep experience as an entrepreneur and successful multi-business owner.

In addition to his business owner experience, Mr. McDonough spent over 25 years as a top-level Information Technology professional and Project Management Consultant in Corporate America, making him well versed in all facets of the business environment.

His real-world brick and mortar business experience combined with his passion for effective web-based marketing has lead him to coach business owners throughout North America to success from the ground up.

In his latest published book, The Complete Internet Marketing Strategy Guide, Ed reveals the detailed requirements every product and service business needs to sustain and increase their profitability. Based on over ten years of successful online marketing, Ed helps businesses get more customers by developing a strategic online marketing solution which delivers extraordinary results.

Along with being a Certified Professional Coach, Mr. McDonough has been certified as a Productivity Coach through the National Association of Productivity Coaches. He regularly helps business owners accomplish more, earn more and free-up time to do the things which are most important to them through his exclusive Productivity Intensive.

Active in the local business community, Ed is an experienced business speaker who is engaging, informing, entertaining and educating. He tells it like it is and passionately shares his knowledge and real life experiences with an open heart.

He'll motivate and captivate you to do business better by showing you the way and simply encouraging you to always "do your best". His talks are well known for providing value added actionable content business owners can put to use right away.

In addition to being an accomplished entrepreneur and business owner, Ed is also a certified meditation instructor and a certified Qigong (chee gung) instructor. Ed lives and practices the life balance methods he openly shares with others on a daily basis. He life is grounded and centered in the belief that anyone can accomplish anything they want when they possess the correct skills and use them wisely.

Mr. McDonough is also active in the local community. He serves on the Board of Directors for the Walpole High School Alumni Association and a member, facilitator and presenter with the United Regional Chamber of Commerce along with being a supporter of local community based organizations and events.

Ed has recently been interviewed on the cable television business program Process for Profit: Steps to Business Success, the Mind Your Own Business radio show, WRNI - Rhode Island's National Public Radio business program, WDIS Talk Radio and Healthy Living Radio (WAD 95.9 FM).
